THE COURT: Okay.

MR. VANDUSSEN: So I understand, your Honor, that I'm on 10:30, but my question is limited to right now whether or not I'm allowed to film in the hallway, not directed through the windows into the courtroom but just film in the hallway. I don't wanna be in contempt of this court by -- by doing that without prior authorization.

THE COURT: No filming. If you wanna go film around the corner, I don't care.

MR. VANDUSSEN: In the hallway, not directed in the -- in the courtroom.

THE COURT: What would be the purpose of that?

MR. VANDUSSEN: Because the defendants that are charged with proving material support to terrorism are -- are in the hallway and if you uphold your orders prohibiting me to film, this is the only video content I will be able to obtain of the defendants in this matter.

THE COURT: No, that's not correct. I'm gonna do what I do in any of these bigger trials, is there's a video feed. All major news agencies and minor news agencies can get in on that feed.

MR. VANDUSSEN: Okay, sir, so I understand that those are gonna be arguments we're making at 10:30. My inquiry is just as to whether or not I'm gonna be held in contempt or if there's a problem with me filming in the hallway, not into the courtroom.

THE COURT: Don't film anything right now.

MR. VANDUSSEN: Okay.

THE COURT: If -- after I hear arguments then I'll --

MR. VANDUSSEN: Just for the Court's attention, I did indicate to your law clerk that I would be initially requesting that you reverse your denial of my request to film today's proceedings based off of the same arguments made in my motion -- emergency motion for reconsideration that is gonna be addressed. So I guess I would orally make that motion right now that I'm allowed to film these proceedings pursuant to Supreme Court Administrative Order 1989-1 and the requirement that this Court provide on the record and articulate a particularized justification for denying my camera in the courtroom today to film these proceedings and how --

THE COURT: I'm telling you right now, you film, you'll be in contempt of court.

MR. VANDUSSEN: Okay, I will see you at -- I'll see you at --(multiple speakers)-- okay -- all right. Thank you, your Honor.

THE COURT: And we'll have the hearing at that time.

(At 10:11:22 a.m., hearing concluded)
